LORDS ARE OF ONE MIND

That Is Why They Should Have Limited Power

London, Nov. 29.—Lord Morley of Blackburn, secretary of state for India, whose speeches since his elevation to the upper house have dealt exclusively with questions concerning India, departed from this rule, when, on behalf of the government, he re-opened the budget debate.

The amendment which the House of Lords proposed to pass, said Lord Morley, though it contained but a couple of lines, involved no fewer than five points, each in turn constituting a more radical departure from constitutional usage and practical convenience.

In the first place, the amendment gave to the House of Lords the taxing power. Next it assumed the power of enforcing a penal dissolution by refusing supplies, then there must be a new parliament whenever the sitting parliament had the misfortune to displease their lordships of the second chamber. And, again, if these propositions are proved, they are enlarging representative supremacy into an oligarchic and nonrepresentative supremacy.

Finally, said Lord Morley, they are throwing out of gear the whole financial machinery for the year. The taxes had been collected on the authority of the House of Commons, and not by law, and all went on regularly until an appropriation bill was passed when the resolution became a law. In the words of the late Lord Salisbury, said the speaker, the two chambers could not have voices in the finances of the government because "the lords belonged too much to one class and consequently, in respect of a large number of persons, the lords are too much of one mind."

The note had been sounded, he added, for the angriest and perhaps most pronounced state of mind in the House of Commons since the late Lord Rothschild, Liberal Unionist, who is a lieutenant of the city of London, and who spoke in the debate on behalf of the Unionists, said the city was ready to pay a fair share of the nation's expenditures, but that he was opposed to many of the provisions of the budget, as they were likely to impair credit and destroy confidence.

RUNAWAY GIRL DEAD

Mystery Surrounds the Death and Men Are Being Searched for

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Miss Mabel Sterling, 18 years old, ran away from her home in East Chicago, Saturday, and yesterday morning was found lying in a room in a lodging house in Chicago, apparently having swallowed carbolic acid with suicidal intent. Death came before she could explain why she ran away or why she desired to die, if her death was suicide. The mystery was deepened in the afternoon when three young men called at the hotel to inquire about Miss Sterling, unaware seemingly, that she was dead. They told Peter Hassfurter, the desk clerk, that she had run away from home. They hurried away when informed that Miss Sterling had killed herself. The police are searching for the men in the hope that they can explain matters that are now a puzzle.

ENGLAND'S MONSTER SHIPS OF WAR

London, Nov. 29.—The keel plates of two monster warships, the Orion, the improved Dreadnaught battleship, and the Lion, the cruiser battleship, were laid today, the former at Portsmouth and the latter at Devonport. The bulk of the material for both vessels is ready and all arrangements have been made for their completion within two years.

The construction of the Lion will mark a notable stage of the evolution of the cruiser battleship. She will have 70,000 horsepower, while her immediate predecessor had 45,000. She will displace 21,000 tons and her length will be 700 feet, making her the largest man-of-war ever laid down.

What is technically known as her "run of deck" indicates an intention to equip the cruiser battleship with ten 12-inch guns, thus placing her as regards armament, on an equality with the latest battleships. She probably will have a nominal speed of 27 knots an hour.

HIRAM HANNON MEETS DEATH IN BLASTING.

Is Killed by "Missed Charge" at Hatchtown Project Last Thursday.

Marysville, Nov. 29.—Word was received here about 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon that Hiram Hannon had been killed by a slow blast at the Hatchtown project, sixty miles south of this place.

Hannon was a resident of Marysville, and at the time of the accident was working for the state on the Hatchtown reservoir project, superintending the blasting. At noon of Thursday eight holes were loaded with a half-log of black powder to each hole. Seven of the charges were exploded. At 1 o'clock Hannon and his men went to work, the former going directly to the "missed hole" on the point of rocks about thirty feet above the river. While he was waiting for a man to set a shovel the delayed charge exploded.

Hannon was hurled in the air, and fell on his head among the rocks on the bank of the river. He died while being conveyed to Panguitch. No particulars of the accident could be learned until the arrival of the men who left here Thursday evening to bring the body to Marysville.

MARRIAGE AND DEATH

Juanita Howard Married at the Side of Her Father's Casket

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Beside the body of her father, James Howard, formerly secretary of the Washington Park club and one of the best known horsemen of the country, Miss Juanita C. Howard was married today to Irving Herriott.

The last wish of Mr. Howard, who was fatally injured by an automobile accident last week, was that his daughter should be married in his presence. Before the license could be obtained, the man who was known as the "father of the American derby" died.

The funeral service was set for this afternoon and before the last rites, Miss Howard and Mr. Herriott stood beside the open casket and were married.

UNITED STATES CONSUL HAS BEEN THREATENED BY PRESIDENT ZELAYA

Americans Were Put to Death Without Fair Hearing—Condition Bordering on Anarchy Prevails in Capital of Nicaragua.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The United States consul at Managua has been threatened by President Zelaya, and he has been granted permission to occupy the legation premises, as being more secure.

The Nicaraguan congress will assemble Wednesday, December 1, and it is rumored that President Zelaya will retire and possibly attempt to escape from the country at night by the Pacific coast. Anarchy, it is said, may ensue. Persistent rumors from various quarters indicate that Irias may succeed Zelaya as president of Nicaragua.

This information, it was announced today, is embodied in telegrams delayed in transmission and received at the state department from the consular representatives of the United States in Nicaragua. The first telegram, dated Managua, states that Le-

EDWARD AS MEDIATOR

Alsop Claim Dispute to be Passed Upon by King

London, Nov. 29.—A request that King Edward mediate the Alsop claim dispute between the United States and Chile was made by the United States through the foreign office today.

His majesty had been communicated with informally on the subject before, but at that time gave a non-committal reply.

Later in the day a similar request was received from the Chilean government. In forwarding these requests to King Edward, it is understood that the foreign office advised his majesty, in view of the fact that both parties desired him to act as arbitrator, there was no reason why he should not accept the invitations.

RACE HORSE MAN IS CONTENT WITH AMERICA

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 29.—"America is good enough for me, I don't think those foreigners are any too fond of us anyhow, and I will stick to racing in this country as long as I live."

This statement was made by the veteran, Ed Geers, yesterday, in denial of a cable report that he intended taking the cream of the racing and trotting material in several American millionaires' strings to compete next season in Berlin, Vienna and Russian tracks. Geers believes American harness racing will receive its greatest boom in the next few years.

He has gone into winter quarters with his string, including the unbeaten, The Harvester, and will not tour Europe, he says, "unless on a sight seeing trip."

CATTLEMEN IN A DUEL AND BOTH ARE KILLED.

Albuquerque, N. M., Nov. 29.—News of a Thanksgiving day duel at Fairview, N. M., in which both participants were killed, has just reached here. James J. Wilhelms, a cattleman and foreman of the United States treasury mine in Sierra county, and Isaac Fitch, cattleman, had been enemies ever since the latter's wedding a year ago, to which he had failed to invite the wife of Fitch. The men had quarreled frequently over this slight and Thanksgiving day drew their revolvers upon meeting again and opened battle. Each was wounded twice and both died almost instantly.

Fairview is 80 miles from railroad or other communication.

NO CLUE TO MURDERER OF BORKE AND FAMILY.

Frontenac, Kas., Nov. 29.—It is not believed by the authorities here that the slayer of William Borke, his wife and three-year-old son, who were murdered on a lonely road five miles north of here last Friday night, will ever be apprehended. Not the slightest clue to establish the identity of the murderer has been discovered. Should the guilty man be arrested, it is probable that summary punishment will be meted out to him by the miners in this district.

HEAD OF EDUCATION IN THE PHILIPPINES

Manila, Nov. 29.—Frank White was today appointed director of education for the Philippine islands, to succeed Dr. Barrows, resigned. Mr. White has been assistant director of education here for several years. He was reared in Nebraska and was graduated from the University of Chicago in 1900 and came to the Philippines in the following year.

WRECK IN KANSAS.

Parsons, Kas., Nov. 29.—A fireman was killed and several passengers were injured in a collision at Olive, near here today, between a northbound Missouri, Kansas & Texas passenger train and an engine sent out to flag the passenger.

placards appeared on the walls in Managua favoring the revolution and denouncing President Zelaya.

One of the other consuls had information that President Zelaya was prepared to escape. Anarchy, he states, may ensue.

The consul asked permission to occupy the legation premises as being more secure against possible vandalism, and this had been granted to him.

A later telegram from the consul at Bluefields says Cannon and Groce respectively were lieutenant colonel and colonel of engineers in the revolutionary army, and both were regularly enlisted under the command of General Chamorro. The highest revolutionary leaders declare Groce, acting in the line of duty, was with an outpost of ten men beyond the camp of General Chamorro, and Cannon, with two men, had been sent to a place of detention. The outpost was surprised by the forces of General Toledo and both officers were captured. General Chamorro afterwards learned from an officer of the Zelayan army that both Americans had been put to death by order of Zelaya, that General Toledo refused to carry out the order and took the both to Fort Castillo.

A dispatch from Corinto states that it is reported there that 1,200 troops of the revolutionary army are in Chinandega, and there is a rumor of a rising in the west in favor of Irias.

PRISONER IS BURNED

Locked in a Cage, He Struggles to Escape the Flames

New York, Nov. 29.—The authorities of Croton Falls are trying to establish the identity of a chance prisoner of the town who was burned to death while locked in an iron cage in the side of a wooden building used as a place of detention.

The unfortunate man had been arrested for intoxication by a deputy constable. Some hours afterwards an officer found his body with the clothing burned off, behind the door of the cage. Traces of a box of matches were also found, which it is supposed the man tried to smoke, and set fire to the blanket upon which he was lying.

The position of the body indicated that he made frantically useless attempts to open the door of the cage.

FOREIGNERS HAD TO BE FOUGHT BACK FROM FLAMES

Pittsburg, Nov. 29.—A riot call was turned into the central police station here last night, bringing out the reserve force of policemen to reinforce the men on beats on the South Side and aid in fighting more than sixty foreigners who were endeavoring to gain admittance to their burning homes to rescue their savings and valuables.

Many of the men were injured in the melee. One woman threw her three-year-old infant from the second story window into the crowd below. A policeman caught the child, which was uninjured. Several of the inmates of the burning buildings narrowly escaped death when they refused to leave their homes before recovering their money.

About sixty-five persons were made homeless by the flames, which started from an overturned lamp, destroyed three buildings and caused a loss estimated at $15,000.

SUPPOSED TO BE DEAD, FATHER SUDDENLY APPEARS

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Henry Deplidge, for 24 years separated from his children and supposed by them to be dead, walked into the house of one of his daughters in Chicago, Saturday night, and yesterday there was a family reunion in which four generations were represented.

Mr. Deplidge is 79 years old, and for half a century, sailed the Great Lakes, first as a common sailor and later as mate and captain. He retired six years ago and has been living in Buffalo. Mr. Deplidge decided a few days ago to come to Chicago and search for his sons and daughters.

WEALTHY WOMAN WILL AID STRIKING GIRLS.

New York, Nov. 29.—The striking girl shirtwaist makers in this city have enlisted the sympathy of Mrs. Phelps Stokes, wife of J. G. Phelps Stokes, in their contest with their employers. Mrs. Stokes spent some time talking with the strikers in a hall on the East Side, after which she said:

"My object was to advise the strikers to work in concert and do nothing that could be construed as a breach of the law. I learned that the girls were driven to strike by miserable wages and conditions of work. From this time I shall take an active part in aiding the strikers."

POWELL AND WOLGAST ARE TO FIGHT TONIGHT.

San Francisco, Nov. 29.—When Lew Powell of this city and Ad Wolgast of Milwaukee meet here tonight in a glove contest scheduled to go twenty rounds, the indications are that the Dreamland pavilion, where the bout will be held, will be filled to the doors.

Great interest attaches to the fight owing to the fact that the winner will be in line for a match with Battling Nelson, the lightweight champion.

Although Powell is a 10 to 6 favorite in the betting, Wolgast has many followers and a game struggle for supremacy is anticipated.

Wolgast has stated that he hopes to rush Powell off his feet and batter him down, while Powell expects to keep his man away and eventually land a knockout blow.

Both men are reported to be well under the 133 pounds, at which weight they must fight. Each claims to be in perfect condition and both have finished training equally confident of victory. Jack Welsh will referee the contest.

CHILD SAVED BY A WOMAN

Little One Had Fallen From an Elevated Train

New York, Nov. 29.—Remarkable luck and the bravery and presence of mind of Bertha Rosenthal saved the life of Cecelia Snyder, a three-year-old child who fell from the window of a moving Second Avenue elevated train directly between the dreaded third rail and an inner car rail, just in front of the northbound platform of a station. Miss Rosenthal who was on the southbound platform, noticed the child lying on the track, throwing aside her furs and jacket, she leaped upon the track and made her way across the rails to the baby.

She found Cecelia tightly wedged between the rails, but by summoning all her strength, she succeeded in tearing her loose, just before a train came rushing to the station. Cecelia was little hurt and was soon restored to her distracted parents.

YALE'S PLAYING CRITICISED BY COLLEGE PAPER

New Haven, Nov. 28.—The Yale News, in editorially commenting on the result of the Yale-Harvard game, had the following:

"Of the Harvard-Yale game itself a volume could be written. It was a decidedly peculiar game of football. That neither side was able to score a touchdown or advance the ball by straight football consistently at any time—that Harvard gained twice as much ground as Yale through straight football tactics, yet never had the ball in its possession within 25 yards of the Yale goal line; that the forward pass and on side kick were not only futile, but even harmful, are all remarkable characteristics.

But there conditions, by constantly forcing both sides to punt, enabled Yale to gain through Coy's superiority over Minot in exchange of kicks. As factors in this method of ground gaining, the high accuracy and speed of the Yale punts may not be neglected. Yale's play as a team unit defies analysis. In turn one was delighted and disappointed in it. The Harvard team was confused at times. Its play then seemed to lack spontaneity and force as well as judgment in selection."

Boston, Nov. 28.—It is now stated that O'Flaherty's brain was temporarily affected by an injury in Saturday's Yale-Harvard football game, which is believed to account for his erratic playing.

The Harvard quarterback was unable to remember his signals. Time after time he gave signals over again, repeating the play just run off, which was demoralizing to the rest of the Crimson team.

When Dr. Nichols, the Harvard team's medical adviser, ran out on the field the first thing O'Flaherty said: "I am all right."

The doctor questioned him. The questions were in the way of a test to see how the Harvard quarterback's mind was acting. "What day is it?" asked the doctor, and O'Flaherty could not tell him.

BURGLAR GIVES WAY WHEN HE SEES CHILDREN

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Two children, sleeping in unconsciousness of danger today, proved more effective in disposing of a robber than all the bolts and bars which the entrances to the home of Adolph Huber.

The influence of the sleeping children, daughters of Huber, caused a burglar to repent his crime and return to the children's parents money which he had just taken at the point of a revolver.

Huber, according to the police, was awakened by some one walking in his room just before daylight and in his question, "Who is there?" brought a threat to kill him if he did not give up his money.

The burglar then searched the garments of the father and also took all the money in Mrs. Huber's purse. He then went into the room where the children were sleeping and tipping out, gave back to the astonished parents the money which he had taken, a small sum, and added a silver coin, saying:

"Those are great kids; I haven't got much coin, but you give them from me."

The police are looking for the kind-hearted burglar.

RAIN FALLS ON THE EVICTED IN LUDLOW, MASS.

Ludlow, Mass., Nov. 29.—Rain today added to the misery of the 300 persons evicted from the tenements owned by the Ludlow Milling association because of a strike in the mills. The household effects of the evicted persons were piled in a heap in the street.

The work of an eviction was suspended today, but it was announced that on Wednesday the occupants of the other houses owned by the company would be ordered to leave.

WHITE MAN IS PURSUED

But Is Saved From a Negro Mob by Police

Washington, Nov. 29.—Edward Perdee, concrete construction superintendent of Marianna, near here, was possibly saved from being lynched by the timely arrival of police officers who lodged the man in the jail on a charge of killing Skinner Young, a negro, a short time earlier.

Perdee and a friend were walking along a road near their home when three strangers approached. It is said Perdee made a wager with his companion that the men were negroes. He won, but the men discussed, realizing that they had been connected with the bet, asked about it. They resented the epithet negro, said to have been uttered by the white men and in the quarrel which followed, Young was shot and killed.

Perdee and his friend had to seek refuge in a hotel to escape friends of the dead man.

KETCHEL TO MEET PAPKE ONCE MORE

Men Will Fight at 165 Pounds—Flynn Could Give Ketchel Good Fight.

It didn't take "Steve" Ketchel very long to pounce on Billy Papke's offer to fight him for the middleweight title at 165 pounds. Ketchel, who is a native of Chicago, has learned of the Keweenaw man's proposition, and said that he would gladly meet the Thunderbolt under the conditions named by Papke. "I'll like nothing better than a fight with William," said Ketchel, in San Francisco, as he sent the wire to Papke. "The only condition that I will make is that he wait until after January. I need a rest badly, and do not intend to enter the ring again until I feel that I have fully recovered from the effects of the fight with Johnson."

If Papke should happen to win, he certainly will claim the title, though he annexes the honor while fighting at a notch not recognized by state authorities. If he is lucky enough to win, though, there will be little chance of anyone saying he isn't pretty nearly the best of the bunch. Papke, of course, will have to meet Langford in that case. Langford has as much right to the palm as either Ketchel or Papke, and they will have a fight in the end. Ketchel is willing that Papke has long since scratched Sam off the list of possible opponents.

Jimmy Coffroth remarked yesterday that he was not a bit surprised at Papke's offer to meet Ketchel at 165 pounds, and added that Papke had a harder time making the weight than did Ketchel on the occasion of their last meeting. Coffroth likewise handed out the tip that Jim Flynn might come pretty close to beating Ketchel in ten rounds if they go through with their fight at Los Angeles. He declares that Flynn is as hard and tough as an oak, and a very bad fellow to handle. Coffroth, however, believes that Ketchel has one great thing in his favor, and that is that Flynn can't hit hard, although he is fighting fast on his feet, besides being fully 15 pounds heavier than Ketchel. Strange, indeed, if he should happen to whip the Assassin. He made it merry for Papke on two occasions.

BANDS DROWN OUT THE PRAYERS OF PROHIBITIONISTS

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 29.—A band of music was placed around each of the four voting places in Birmingham early today to drown out the prayers and singing and pleadings of the women and children who gathered early in the morning in an effort to influence votes for the constitutional amendment for prohibition. Deputy sheriffs and extra policemen were on duty around the polls and the excitement was intense.

All business in Birmingham is practically suspended today.

TAFT'S MESSAGE TO CONGRESS.

Washington, Nov. 29.—President Taft has begun dictating his annual message to congress. To expect to complete the work and have it in the hands of the public printer by the middle of the week.

LANGFORD POSTS FORFEIT.

Boston, Nov. 28.—Acting for Sam Langford, the heavyweight boxer of this city, Manager Woods today deposited $10,000 to bind a match of not less than twenty rounds with Jack Johnson for the championship of the world.

ATTENTION! WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.

The members Weber Camp No. 74 are earnestly requested to attend the regular meeting Thursday evening, December 2nd.

Head Councillor I. L. Roak and a large delegation from Salt Lake City will be present.

Special music and refreshments will be provided.

A large attendance of the members is desired on this occasion to meet the Head Council and Salt Lake delegation.

Come and have a good time.
